Dan Sung: A Proven Neighbor, Prepared to Lead

You don't just live in Golden; you're a part of it. My wife, Stephanie, and I chose to raise our family here 19 years ago because we wanted our two daughters to grow up in a community of shared trails and shared values. I'm running for City Council to protect Golden for all our families. Protecting what we love requires preparation. My career has been a deliberate journey to gain the 360-degree view needed to solve Golden's challenges: as an attorney, a state regulator, and earning an MBA and Master's in Finance. But experience is meaningless unless put to work for your neighbors. I've spent years serving our community: helping guide a major local financial institution as a board director, successfully leading a swim club for over 300 local families, and as an alumnus of Leadership Golden.

At City Hall, I will have three core commitments:

1. To Trust and Listen to You. Residents are tired of being ignored. When my neighbors and I developed a proactive plan to fix the dangerous 19th Street traffic corridor, we asked for a collaborative meeting. The City's response wasn't a conversation; it was a memo. This process is broken. My commitment is to a true partnership, where your voice guides our decisions from the very start.

2. To Fuel Golden's Prosperity. I will champion our local businesses as the engine of our economy. I will work to make City Hall their partner, not an obstacle, building a prosperous city for everyone while ensuring growth serves our community's character.

3. A Residents-First Focus. My priority will always be the quality of life for the people who live here. I will bring a methodical, residents-first approach to solving the everyday challenges we face, from traffic to public safety.

19 years of living in Golden has forged a clear vision for our future. 19 years of listening to our neighbors means I get it. I ask for your vote to be your voice at City Hall. Learn more at dansungforgolden.com.
